5. DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS:

The Rules instructs this Arbitrator as to the Principles to be used in rendering its decision. It says that, "a panel shall decide a Complaint on the basis of the statements and documents submitted by the parties in accordance with the Policy, the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, the Rules and any Rules and Principles of Law that it deems applicable".

According to the Policy, the Complainant must prove that:-

- a) The Registrant's Domain name is identical or confusingly similar to a name, Trademark or Service mark in which the Complainant has rights;
- b) The Registrant's has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the Domain name that is the subject of Complaint; and
- c) The Registrant's Domain name has been Registered or is being used in bad faith.

(A). Identical or Confusingly Similar:

- i. The Respondent's domain name www.visteon.in is identical to the Complainant's trademark VISTEON. The Complainant has overwhelming common law as well as statutory rights in its trade/service marks VISTEON in multiple jurisdictions including India. Therefore, the Complainant is the sole legitimate owner of the trade/service mark VISTEON.
- ii. Respondent's registration and use of the domain www.visteon.in is bound to induce members of the public and trade to believe that the Respondent has a trade connection, association, relationship or approval of the Complainant, when it is not so.
- iii. The distinctive and the dominant element in the Respondent's domain is the word VISTEON hence, the domain www.visteon.in is identical to the trade/service mark VISTEON in which the Complainant has statutory and common law rights.

The disputed domain name clearly incorporates the famous trademark VISTEON of the Complainant in its entirety. Such use of the disputed domain name is considered evidence of bad faith registration and use under the INDRP. In this regard, refer INDRP/642 MOZILLA FOUNDATION Vs Mr. CHANDAN.

(B). Rights or Legitimate Interests :

- i) The Complainant is the sole legitimate owner of the trade mark VISTEON. The Complainant neither licensed nor permitted the Respondent to use trade/service mark VISTEON or to apply for any domain name incorporating the said trade/service marks.
- ii) The Respondent has not made any legitimate use of the domain name www.visteon.in since the date of its registration and is prejudicially blocking the domain register. It is pertinent to note that the impugned domain name is a mere copy of the Complainant's trademark VISTEON. The malafide intent of the Respondent to infringe the Complainant's trade mark rights is apparent. Further, in view of the popularity of the Complainant's trade mark VISTEON, the disputed domain name www.visteon.in is bound to induce members of the public and trade to believe that the Respondent has trade connection, association, relationship or approval of the Complainant. The respondent wants to misappropriate and usurp the reputation and goodwill of the Complainant's trademark VISTEON.

(C). Registered and Used in Bad Faith:

The Respondent has fraudulently provided links to various third party e-commerce sites under the domain name www.visteon.in. It is obvious that the Respondent is making monetary gains by attracting unwary customers by misrepresenting an association with the Complainant. Further, considering the incessant use, reputation and the well-known brand of the Complainant's marks, the illegitimate registration and use of the impugned domain name amounts to brand dilution which cannot be compensated monetarily. Hence, it becomes critical that unscrupulous individuals are not allowed usurp renowned trademarks and domain names to unfairly benefit from such act.

The very use of a domain name by someone with no connection with the Complainant suggests opportunistic bad faith, refer INDRP case No. 1167.

6. DECISION

On the basis of the averments in the complaints, citation, documentary evidence and other substantiating points, the arbitrator has reached to the following conclusions:-

Pradeep
Arb

- a.) The disputed Domain name contains registered trade/service mark of the Complainant in its entirety and is totally identical or confusingly similar to a name, trademark in which the Complainant has legitimate rights and interests.
- b.) The Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the domain name. He has not been authorised, licensed/ permitted to use the said domain name, nor has he been known individually or by his business by the name of disputed domain name or any closely resembling term to it.
- c.) The disputed domain name is registered in bad faith by the Respondent and allowing him to continue to own the same would make injustice and loss to the Complainant as also it may pose serious threats to innocent people anywhere in the world.
- d.) Allowing a stranger to trade on someone else's goodwill or reputation is injustice on legitimate person having spent efforts and money in building his brand, goodwill and reputation, because it results in allowing unscrupulous persons to gain monetarily to the disadvantage of the person who is legitimately entitled to it.
