ARBITRATION CASE NO. 2/2006

IN THE ARBITRATION MATTER OF:

PIZZA HUT INTERNATIONAL LLC ...CLAIMANT

VERSUS

PINO B. ...RESPONDENT

AWARD:

The present dispute has arisen over the registration of the domain name pizzahut.in which was registered by the respondent. The claimant has filed the present claim seeking the aforesaid domain name pizzahut.in be cancelled which was granted in favour of the respondent and be transferred in favour of the claimant. However, in response to the aforesaid claim, the respondent fairly consented for transferring the aforesaid domain name in favour of the claimant. Although the respondent in his reply has raised the issue of sunrise period when he had applied for the registration of the aforesaid domain name, but he did not mention the purpose for which the said the domain name was being used by him. Furthermore, the claimant have also not been able to clarify that while during the sunrise period why it had not filed its appropriate objection to the registration of the aforesaid domain in favour of the respondent during the sunrise period.

Be that as it may, on considering all facts and circumstances and on perusal of the records, it is just and fair that the prayer of the claimant is allowed in its favour for cancellation of the aforesaid domain name pizzahut.in which was registered in favour of the respondent and allow the transfer of the aforesaid domain name in favour of the claimant. As the respondent had acted fairly, no cost is awarded in favour of the claimant.
